Definition

A recreation professional/leisure educator is defined for the purposes of this award as an individual who has major responsibility for leadership in the recreation/leisure profession or teaching recreation/leisure education (studies) at the college/university level.

Eligibility Requirements

Any person, who meets the eligibility requirements and exemplifies the criteria for this award as outlined below, may apply or be nominated by a colleague.

Eligibility requirements include:

1. This is a State/Midwest District Award and is not awarded at the national level. The Illinois State award winner will be advanced to Midwest District AAHPERD for consideration.
2. Candidates shall be a current member of AAHPERD and Illinois AHPERD.
3. Candidates shall be persons who have exhibited outstanding and creative leadership in the recreation profession or as an innovative leisure educator at the college/university level.
4. The Recreation Professional/Leisure Educator of the Year will present a session at the IAHPERD State Convention in November.
5. Candidates should be either currently involved in recreation leadership pursuits or as illustrated by having:

- Delivered speeches, presentations, consultations, and/or demonstrations at workshops and/or conferences,
 - Made a significant contribution in the area of recreation/leisure in various areas such as publications and service at the national, district, and/or state level, and
 - Demonstrated a vitality of contemporary and future-centered leisure thought and theory.
6. Degree in and certification as a recreation professional/leisure educator.
 7. The current Recreation Professional/Leisure Educator of the Year will present a session at the IAHPERD State Convention in November.
 8. Verification of teaching assignment from your place of employment.

Please note: Current members of AAPAR Executive Committees are not eligible to apply for this award.

Teaching Assignment

Teachers/professional leisure educators may have responsibility for teaching general PE, but applications can be submitted only for the recreation professional/leisure education part of the teaching assignment. A staff member/administrator who can attest to the applicant's assignment must complete a form included in the packet.

Application Procedures

All applicants must submit six typed and complete applications to the Illinois District President of the district you reside by March 1. Application materials should include:

1. Midwest District Awards Application Cover Sheet (located at the back of this application packet);
2. Support materials, and publicity forms, filled out completely and typed using times New Roman 12 point font;
3. Written documentation demonstrating compliance with the award qualifications as it applies to his/her situation (resumes or vitae not accepted);
4. A current letter of recommendation from applicant's administrator or colleague. The letter should be directly related to the award qualifications providing a biographical sketch outlining the contributions of the applicant and how these contributions are deserving of recognition;
5. A 3½" X 2½" (wallet size) photograph that will not be returned; and
6. The verification of teaching assignment from your place of employment.

Note: Applications that are forwarded to AAHPERD for Midwest District consideration must be on forms that are included in this packet and comply with all guidelines described here or they will not be considered.

State and AAHPERD District Selection and Recognition Process

1. IAHPERD District Presidents must receive six (6) typed and complete applications by March 1. Send your application to your state-district president.
